27,000 Swindler Suspect Arrested After 3-Year Hunt

earch Over Many States Ends at Forty-second St. and Fifth Ave.: Civil War Veteran Complainant

Thomas Baker, fifty-seven years old, ested yesterday at Fifth Avenue and ond Street by Detective Sercant Barron and operatives of the william J. Burns Detective Agency as swindler who got $27,000 from J. A. saelle, a retired farmer, of Cowgill, Baker is said to be under indictment in Kansas under the name of T. C. Putnam, the actual transfer of the money having taken place is Topeka, is that state, although events leading up to it occurred in various states.

Linzelle, a Civil War veteran, was in Manitou Springs, Col. when he met Patnam," who, like himself, seemed to be traveling for pleasure. They traveled together for several weeks and, while in Ronca Citr, Okla., had the good luck to pick up a wallet contained a considerable sum of money.

It contained also the name of the sener, whose home was in Topeka, Fan. Thenceforward, it is believed, "Putnam" traveled not only for pleasure, but for profit. He and Linzelle went to Topeka, found that the owner of the wallet was a broker and offered him the wallet.

of the wallet was a broker and offered him the wallet.

He waved it aside. It was a mere nothing, he said—chicken feed. He begged the finders to keep it. Linzelle welld not hear of such a thing and neither would "Putnam." A happy means of adjusting the difficulty occurred to the latter. He suggested that the broker square things by giving them a few tips on stocks.

The broker agreed. A deal was put over. Linzelle was informed his share of the profit was about $500,000. In order to claim it he had to show he had the money to pay for the stock originally purchased. He proved up with a check. The check was for $27,000. He never naw his money again.

Clergy May Make Wine, New Regulations Say

May Qualify as Owners of Bonded Wineries for Religious Purposes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—New regulations covering distribution of wine for sacramental purposes in accord with the recent opinion of Attorney General Daugherty were issued to-day by internal Revenue Commissioner Bair, to become effective September facturers or importers of sacramental wine may sell only to rabbis, minis-ters, priests or other authorized of-ficials of a church. Church officers may tot manufacture wine for their in-dividual use, nor for the use of the congregation, but may qualify as proprietors of bonded winerics for the purpose of manufacturing wine for religious purposes, or may be em-ployed by qualified wine makers to supervise the production of sacramen-ployed by qualified wine makers to supervise the production of sacramental wines.

Distribution of sacramental wines under the regulations will be made through duly appointed officers of the churches or congregations who are prohibited from selling to others, but where it was the practice of members of congregations before the advent of prohibition to use wine for sacramental purposes in the home it may be furnished in quantities.

Auto Hits His Pet

Pa, near here, is dead, while his pet pup is seen around to-day with a foriorn look, sensing the loss, but not knowing that a harum-scarum dog prank cost his young master's life.

Chasing automobiles was the favorite, though reckless, pastime of this particular pup. When sporting blood stirred him he ran for the fleeing wheels as ardently as at other times be frolicked in play with his fond

The two were playing yesterday in front of the Jobson home when the pup dashed in pursuit of a machine and, lacking his accustomed agility, was bowled over. Screaming, the boy ran into the house. He refused to be comforted over his apparent loss, and soon went into convulsions from which he failed to recover.

The dog, though stunned, was uninjured.

ugar Rates Held Justified

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Rates maintained by Western railroads on tugar, canned fruits, vegetables and fresh and evaporated fruits from California and Utah to Nevada points were held justified to-day by the Interstate Cemmerce Commission, though five of the eleven commission, though five of the eleven commissioners dissented from the majority conclusion. Rates on all the products named were attacked by the Nevada Public Service Commission in a proceeding which asked for sharp reductions. Chairman McChord and Commissioners Campbell, Meyer, Eastman and Potter constituted the minority, which held the rates should be graded downward.
